

Dear Bill,

As always, I'm very grateful for you and what you do. Like riding a bicycle, making love or building Rome, to get really good it always takes time.

Listening to you talk to my clients was like watching the World's Series of Poker Finalists doing what they do best.

Love, passion, honesty and experience are the best teachers.

Thank you again for your time today with my client Joel.

Sincerely

Marc Preven
New York, New York